Latitude and longitude

Lines of latitude run east and west. Lines of longitude run north and south.

Name _____

Free printable from mapotter.com · Free to print and copy for home and classroom use

Map shapes: Natural Earth (public domain)

Find it with latitude and longitude

Use the map on page 1. Answers are on page 3.

Name _____

1. Which continent is the equator and the prime meridian both close to? _____
2. Is North America north or south of the equator? _____
3. Is Australia east or west of the prime meridian? _____
4. Which ocean is at 30° S, 90° E? _____
5. Which continent is at 60° N, 90° E? _____
6. Which continent is at 15° S, 60° W? _____
7. Which continent is all south of 60° S? _____
8. Which ocean is at 0°, 150° W? _____

Free printable from mapotter.com · Free to print and copy for home and classroom use

Answer key

Find it with latitude and longitude

1. Africa
2. North
3. East
4. The Indian Ocean
5. Asia
6. South America
7. Antarctica
8. The Pacific Ocean